Mass of the Angels

2009

Every year Catholic Charities, working with the Life Ministries of our Diocese, hosts a special Mass for parents and families who have "lost" a child or children (born or unborn). This Mass was started in 1998 in an effort to comfort the family of a college student, Ms. Amy Forbes, who was fatally injured while returning to school. Although the Mass was started just 10 years ago in remembrance of this student, the observance now memorializes over 100 children.

Very Reverend Robert F. Morris will be our celebrant. A gathering to include coffee and light refreshments will follow where parents can meet other parents in similar circumstances.

Catholic Charities and the Diocese of St. Petersburg invites you to attend this special Mass and remembrance of children who have gone to be with the Lord. For RSVP's information, or to have a child remembered at Mass, please call Barbara Hertz at Catholic Charities.
