

Resources for Justice in Liturgy

Evening Prayer Commemorating the Birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

From Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) www.ltp.org

A Special Edition of LTP's Plenty Good Room

How should we keep this national holiday? The September-October 1993 issue of Plenty Good Room offers a service of Evening Prayer to be used on the weekend of Dr. King's birthday in January. It is a rich resource of texts and music that can be adapted to your own traditions and used to inspire the continuation of Dr. King's work.

Paperback, 6 x 11 1/2, 24 pages.

ISBN: 978-1-56854-019-1 Code: PGRMLK

Liturgies of Lament by J. Frank Henderson From Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) www.ltp.org

How does a community respond in ritual and in prayer to violence or disaster? What do we say, what do we sing and what gestures do we make? Here is sensible and sensitive advice for using powerful prayer forms for dealing with tragedies of life. Sample services are provided along with lists of scriptures, prayers and other texts. An appendix treats interchurch and interfaith opportunities.

Paperback, 7 1/8, x 10 1/4, 96 pages.

ISBN: 978-0-929650-78-4

Code: LAMENT

Liturgy and Justice by Lucio Caruso

“The Church's deepest nature is expressed in her three-fold responsibility: of proclaiming the word of God, celebrating the sacraments, and exercising the ministry of charity. These duties presuppose each other and are inseparable.” (Deus Caritas Est—God is Love, Encyclical Letter of Pope Benedict XVI) This series of four bulletin inserts brings out the connection between the celebration of the liturgy and working for justice.

8.5 x 11 Bulletin Insert (4 in the series) Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions) website: <http://www.fdlc.org/Publications/NewPublications.htm>

English, No. 44150 (paper) No. 44150-Z (PDF-Adobe Acrobat File)

Spanish, No. 44151 (paper) No. 44151-Z (PDF-Adobe Acrobat File)

Preaching the Just Word Video Series

How can our homilies both encourage and challenge communities to live justly? How can we preach about justice without using jargon and cliché? Expand your vision of justice and hone your preaching skills.

ISBN: 978-1-56854-136-5

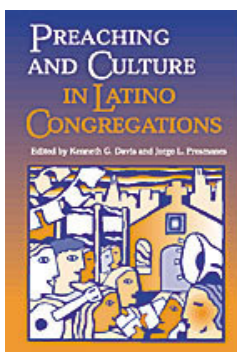

Code: PJWSET

From Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) www.ltp.org

Preaching and Culture in Latino Congregations compiled by Kenneth G.

Davis

and Jorge L. Presmanes

Good preaching and good ministry can happen only when the minister respects the way that the word has become flesh in a particular community: the way stories are told, children are raised, history is remembered, art is made. Wonderfully, this immersion is no chore. It is a delight. With an emphasis on preaching but a concern for all aspects of ministry, the eight authors of the articles in this book explore the blessing that is the Hispanic presence in the United States.

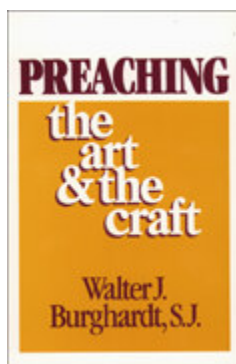

Contributors include Rosa María Icaza, María Luisa Iglesias, SC, Jaime Lara, Juan J. Sosa, Raúl Gómez, and Victor Alvarez.

Their words will open the eyes of non-Hispanics and have wisdom for Hispanics themselves as all of us approach a privileged moment for the Catholic Church in the United States. Some of the articles in this new book appeared in the Fall/Winter 2000 issue of Chicago Studies.

Paperback, 6 x 9, 145 pages.

ISBN: 978-1-56854-363-5 Code: PCLAT

From Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) www.ltp.org

From Paulist Press: www.paulistpress.com

Practical advice for preachers everywhere, written out of long experience and deep learning. Homilists will welcome its advice about language, the role of the imagination, preaching and prophecy, the liturgical setting of the preached word, social justice.

0-8091-2906-X

Paperback. Walter J. Burghardt, SJ

preachingtheWORD

an online resource for preparing sermons and scripture reflections based on the Revised Common Lectionary for Sundays From the editors of Sojourners

Preparing a Sermon? We Can Help.

Sojourners has long provided timely and discerning commentary on scripture. Now we've brought it together in one place to help you in your sermon preparation or other biblical reflection.

With "Preaching the Word," every month you'll receive the best biblical commentary available from more than 30 years of Sojourners - including exclusive access to articles previously unavailable online. We've done the research for you, and brought together in one convenient resource some of the most insightful commentators of our day.

"Preaching the Word" is organized according to the Revised Common Lectionary for Sundays, so preachers, worship leaders, pastors, and Bible study groups can easily get to the challenging heart of the scriptures.

http://www.sojo.net/index.cfm?action=resources.sermon_prep

Education for Justice Network

The Education for Justice Web Site provides resources and materials for teachers, social action directors, parish members, campus ministers and others in leadership roles to use with their groups/classes in order to deepen their understanding of Catholic Social Teaching and social justice. Yearly membership fee required.

Lectionary readings and reflection are significant ways to keep Catholic Social Teaching and social justice issues part of all Catholics' weekly reflections

Fr. John Bucki, SJ, is the editor/writer of this section. Visit the website for a sample of the reflections that can help support your preaching or Gospel reflection:

<http://www.educationforjustice.org/bin/view.fpl/1413.html>