Missal Publishers Information

The following pages give links, details, and updated information on the various publishers' offerings. This information is provided to you to help in budgeting for a purchase of the revised Missal. As you will see, there are many options from which to choose, depending on budgets and need. Some places may only want/need one copy, while others may want multiple copies for chapels, preparatory study, and the like.

Parishes/institutions will have to decide which publisher's text is right for them. Unfortunately, we do not have sample copies to evaluate, so it is hard to make any judgment on which is better. One can look to the previous work of some of the publishers who have published Missals or other ritual texts in the past (like Catholic Book Publishing or USCCB Publishing) to help guide the decision.

The Office of Worship is able to offer discounts in both the cost of the ritual texts and shipping if a minimum number of books is ordered and delivered directly to the office. We are happy to pass those discounts on to parishes. In addition, for each book ordered through this office, a small amount of the amount of purchase will help supplement the various ministries this office provides so please consider ordering from us. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Office of Worship at 235-9601 ext. 1462 or e-mail Mary Fournie at mfournie@diobelle.org.

Thank you and God bless your ministry!

Liturgical Press is the other publisher of the current Sacramentary, which seems to be less used due to the way it had been formatted. It seems such issues will not be present in the revised Missal since the guidelines for publication are now more stringent. Artwork for this Missal by well-known liturgical artist Brother Martin Erspamer, OSB, a monk of Saint Meinrad Archabbey.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has designed a reverent book to engage the congregation to fully participate in the Mass. The Altar Edition of the Roman Missal, Third Edition preserves the same expert quality, design, and affordability of previous liturgical ritual books.

Produced with high quality materials, manufacturing expertise and bound for enduring continuous use, the Altar Edition features a leather cover, gold-gilded pages, strong endsheets, and lasting tabs and ribbons; bringing customers a durable and elegant volume for everyday use. The book is designed with photographs of religious artwork from the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception to illustrate the spirituality of the Mass.

ROMAN MISSAL WORKSHOPS TO BE HELD IN DIOCESE OF BELLEVILLE March 26-June 18, 2011

The Third Edition of the Roman Missal A Day of Prayer, Reflection and Catechesis

The Diocese of Belleville will offer workshops of formation and information to various groups of ministers in preparation for the implementation of the English translation of the Third Edition of the Roman Missal on the First Sunday of Advent - November 27, 2011.

Participants will engage in conversation on how, in their specific ministries, they can assist the faithful (adults, youth, children) to go beyond the technical changes in the texts to affect real change in the liturgical life of the parish community, as it continues to live the vision of the Second Vatican Council.

For more information or for a registration brochure please go to the Office of Worship website at officeofworship.catholicweb.com.

Please note that the registration deadline is 10 days before each scheduled workshop.
Catechetical credit will be given for attendance at the workshop.
