

Friends In Faith

Friends in Faith, an Ecumenical Dialog

c/o William G. Collins, Jr.
2 Spyglass Drive, Aiken, SC 29803

April 10, 2006

Dear Friend in Christ,

We are happy to announce the fourth dialogue meeting of the "Friends in Faith" series of dialogues among Christians of different traditions. Ecumenical dialogue presents an opportunity to hear and learn about each others' views, in order to deepen mutual understanding and respect. With the help of the Holy Spirit, we will draw closer to our Lord Jesus Christ and to each other. The enclosed brochure and poster describe the dialogue series.

The fourth dialogue meeting will take place on Saturday, April 29, 2006 at South Aiken Presbyterian Church. Registration will start at 8:30, with the dialogue meeting starting at 9 AM; we expect to finish before noon.

The topic will be the authority of Scripture. Speakers from the Baptist, Roman Catholic and United Methodist churches will present their views, followed by a question and answer session. The Reverend Doctor John Frye, Pastor of the host church, will moderate the meeting. The meeting will open and close with prayer.

Please publicize this dialogue among your congregation. Publicity materials are enclosed. Make additional copies as needed. If you want additional publicity materials, contact me.

We pray for deeper understanding and cooperation among Christians, to lead us toward the unity for which Jesus prayed on the night before He died. Please publicize the "Friends in Faith" dialogue series in your church, come to the meetings, and encourage members of your congregation to come.

In the Name of Jesus,

William G. Collins, Jr., Planning Group Chairman
(803) 642-9651; bbcollins@earthlink.net

Planned by clergy and laity from:

Cumberland A. M. E
Church

First Baptist Church of Aiken

First Presbyterian
Church of Aiken

St. John's United Methodist Church

St. Mary Help of Christians Catholic Church

St. Paul Lutheran
Church

St. Thaddeus
Episcopal Church