

Experience the Beauty and Peace of the Monsignor Cummings Youth Center

Located on the edge of Bethany Center the Monsignor George Cummings Youth Center is complete with classic Florida architecture, rich natural surroundings.

water front views and habitat

The complex of three as a part of Bethany Center to of the Diocese of St. Petersburg. Bunkhouses, able to sleep a total of 84 including chaperones, flank a central gathering hall.

buildings was built in 2008 support the youth ministries

Each of the dormitory style bunkhouses sleeps 18 youth, plus three chaperones in two separate chaperone rooms. There are full facilities for the youth with private showers and changing spaces. The chaperone rooms are complete with private full bathrooms.

Gathering Hall

The central building of the Monsignor George Cummings Youth Center is the gathering hall. This flexible meeting space draws inward the beauty of Lake Martha and the natural surroundings with oversized windows and French doors.

There is a large flat screen TV with computer inputs; a kitchenette with icemaker, sinks and full size refrigerator; and comfortable youth that wrap completely around the chairs for private time or to gather in friendly furnishings. The wide porches building have benches and rocking small groups.

Bethany's St. James Chapel is Monsignor Cummings Youth Center. Favalora Hall where Bethany's dining served at the youth center.

St. James Chapel

Bethany Center is located on the Dyke Road, convenient to all parts of central Florida. With over 200 acres of habitat a stay at the Monsignor Cummings Youth Center at Bethany Center is an escape from the everyday, an entrance into a place of peace, and an experience like no other. Contact us today at available to groups and guests using the Meals are normally provided at room is located. On occasion, meals are northern edge of Tampa off of Van the Diocese of St. Petersburg and all of beauty, water views, and natural Florida

www.bethanycenterfl.org or 813.960.6300