Thanks to all the children and young people who had a big input in the Mass last Sunday. They did themselves proud.

Bishop's Walk: Thanks to everyone who sponsored him.

Hot Topics: to help keep us better informed on 'hot topics' in Catholic teaching today we have decided to start a short series of talks and discussions after the Sunday evening 6pm Mass beginning soon. Mass ends at about 6.45pm and the talk will begin at around 7.00pm. We have designated speakers from both within and outside the Parish. (The evening would not be more than 1 ¼ hours)

1st Nov: The Eucharist – symbolic memorial?

15th Nov: Sex and marriage – just a series of prohibitions?

29th Nov: Medical Ethics – not my business?

13th Dec: Church Authority – "what is truth?"

The Sheffield Poverty Pilgrimage was well attended, and the stop at Arbourthorne Church a particular pleasure. We were greeted there with hot soup, and with prayers and singing from Zimbabwean, Eritrean and Ethiopian parishioners. Many thanks for the £47.00 sponsorship money received.

Copies of Cafod bi-monthly newsletter available in the narthex, please take one.

We would like to wish the very best to Jefferson, Claudia and Emily (server) as they go back to their home country of Brazil. It's been a real joy knowing them and they will be sorely missed. We all know how good Emily was at serving Mass - we will miss her smiling face on Sunday mornings. My God bless them as a family.
