

K-12 SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Choose the right learning environment for your child

Does your household income qualify your child for free or reduced lunch?

If YES, then your child is likely to be eligible for either a $4,106* scholarship to a private school OR a $500 scholarship to help cover transportation to a public school in a different county.

The projected scholarship for the 2011-12 school year is $4,200.*

The scholarship is based on income, not academic performance.

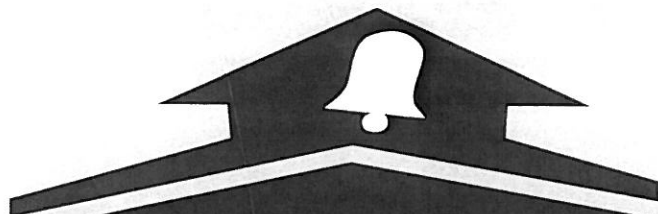

Last year, more than 33,000 Florida children benefitted from this scholarship and were able to choose from one of approximately 1,200 private schools in Florida.
