

School Closing Information

In the event of inclement weather, Holy Name School will adhere to the decision of the Birmingham School District and/or Brother Rice and Marian.

If, however, we are forced to close for a reason that is unrelated to the other schools in the district it will be announced on the local news stations and/or we will implement the SCHOOLREACH SYSTEM that was organized at the beginning of the school year.