"Cathedral in the Cornfield"

Our Heritage

Immanuel Lutheran Church began in 1872 when immigrants from East Friesland, Germany, migrated to Champaign County, Illinois. The immigrants drained off the swamp land and began to farm the rich soil.

The present church structure was built in 1914 to accommodate the growing congregation. Immanuel was given the name "the mother church", as a number of neighboring Lutheran congregations grew from it. Today it is a part of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.

We are known as the "Cathedral in the Cornfield" due to our rural location.
