It is a well known fact that abortion and all acts of violence against the sacredness of life are among the factors that have plagued the African American community. THE NATIONAL BLACK CATHOLIC APOSTOLATE FOR LIFE is calling on all to join in the recitation of the Holy Rosary, particularly on Monday January 24, 2011, to end abortion and all acts of violence against Life. You are encouraged to pray the rosary wherever it is convenient, in your Church, while utilizing public/private transportation, during your lunch period or in your home.

The opening Mass for the National Vigil for Life, will begin on Sunday January 23, 2011 at 6:30 PM, at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C. On Monday January 24, 2011, Morning prayers begin at 6:30 a.m. followed by the closing Mass at 7:30 a.m. The March for Life will be held at 12Noon.

Supreme Knight Fredon DeKarlos Blackmon and Supreme Lady GERALYN C. Shelvin, Knights of Peter Claver and Knights of Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary Black Catholic Rosary Across America for Life 2011 National Conveners.

The National Black Catholic Apostolate for Life was inaugurated in the fall of 1997, with the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus and the Franciscan Solid Ground Ministry as sponsors and with the support of the late John Cardinal O'Connor Archbishop of New York and the Archdiocese's Office of Black Ministry. NBCAL is supported by all the major National Black Catholic organizations in the U.S.A. Visit us at www.blackcatholicsforlife.org.
