

Salt Lake Deanery Council of Catholic Women
January 14, 2011

Several ladies went to Ogden to meet Sr. Maria Nguyen at Give Us A Chance. Sr. Maria's fashions will be featured at the Salt Lake Deanery Spring Luncheon on Saturday, March 10 at St. Patrick's.

Cathedral CCW – The CCW still have the following activities on-going or planned: Parish Book Club, Rosary Making Class, Newcomer's Dinner and Lenten Cooking Class. The finished activities include the NCCW Day of Fasting and Prayer, Thanksgiving Bake Sale, and Christmas Luncheon.

Catholic Women's League – The Church Women United Advent Service and Tea at St. Ambrose was held on Friday, December 9. Fr. Andrew presented the advent reflection; it was a beautiful service.

OLL Salt Lake CCW – No report available.

OLL Magna CCW – No report available.

St. Ann CCW – The ladies are still planning a baby shower for St. Martha's Project and a spring fashion show/lunch. An Advent Social held in December was a big success – ladies brought gifts for the school and the food bank. The CCW participates with Fr. Sciumbato on a monthly collection of items for St. Vincent DePaul.

St. Marguerite CCW – The ladies are still serving a once-a-month Sunday breakfast. Fr. Sam met with the ladies in November to review the new changes to the mass; it was quite interesting. The ladies had a Christmas dinner in December.

St. Olaf CCW – The CCW will host a luncheon on Saturday, January 28; they are celebrating "New Beginnings".

St. Patrick CCW – Several members attended the Diocese Advent Retreat on December 3.

St. Peter and Paul CCW – CCW members worked with the Knights of Columbus to organize a holiday food drive for parish families in need; the drive was kicked off on November 17 with the NCCW National Day of Fasting and Prayer. CCW finished their annual Keep Warm clothing drive which ran through December. They plan to make Valentine's Day cards for the VA residents and nursing home residents. A bake sale is also planned for February 11 and 12.
