Hello Diocesan Youth Leaders,

I just spent the weekend with Leigh Sterten at CYC in West Plains. I walked away with such a wonderful feeling and a new out look on what our youth program could be.

I feel I have something to share with all of you that could help you find some of the hard to get funds needed to do things with your kids. I work with a non profit organization that places exchange students nation wide. I live in Marshfield MO. I am the local coordinator for ERDT/Share. This company is looking for host families. They have a program that will pay your youth group $100.00 for every family that hosts a student. All you have to do is get the word out. I can provide flyers and you have the youth power. Together we could be a great team. Your group will have funds and Missouri will have some new young people learning how wonderful America is.

Please feel free to contact me no matter where you live in Missouri we have a coordinator that will help you and I will be glad to point the way.

Yours in faith,

Non-profit organizations in YOUR community can receive a $100 donation for each qualified family that they refer to the SHARE! High School Exchange Program as a 2006-2007 host family!

The SHARE! High School Exchange Program, which is sponsored by the Educational Resource Development Trust (ERDT), matches American host families with teenagers from a variety of countries who attend local high schools for a semester or academic year.

Students are 15 to 18 years old, carefully screened, speak English, and are fully insured. Volunteer host families, with or without children at home, provide meals, a bed and a loving home for their student.

Your organization will receive a $100 donation after the family qualifies to become a host family and chooses a student who will be arriving this August. The local high school must also agree to enroll the student.
